

2026-2027 WEBINARS FOR PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

PSAT, 8/9®: Now What?

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 8th and 9th grade families
- November 4, 2026 | 8pm ET
- Duration: ~30 minutes

Just getting started with standardized testing? Get clarity from the PSAT 8/9® in just 30 minutes. This session walks families through what the PSAT 8/9® measures, how to read the score report, and what it reveals about early high school and future SAT® readiness. You'll leave with clear next steps to support skill-building now so your student is on track long before high-stakes testing begins.

PSAT/NMSQT®, Now What?

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 11th-grade families
- Nov 17, 2026 | 7:00 PM ET
- Duration: ~60 minutes

Help make the most of your student's PSAT/NMSQT® results. Learn what the scores really mean, how the PSAT® connects to SAT®/ACT® readiness, which data points matter most, and how Revolution Prep's new comprehensive score report can guide a smart testing plan and clarify National Merit Scholarship potential.

Navigating the High School Transition

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 8th and 9th grade families
- Apr 29, 2027 | 8:00 PM ET
- Duration: ~60 minutes

Transitioning into high school can be a daunting event for both parents/guardians and students. In this webinar, families can learn how to best prepare for academics and test prep in high school, as well as learn what to expect. As the importance of standardized tests, grades, course rigor, and extracurricular activities increases, get practical tips for a successful transition into high school.

Navigating the Critical Changes in Admissions Testing

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 9th-11th grade families
- Oct 13, 2026 | 8:00 PM ET
- Mar 9, 2027 | 7:00 PM ET
- Duration: ~60 minutes

College admissions testing requirements and policies are changing fast. Understanding how all the pieces fit together is key for students who want to keep every opportunity open. Join us for a clear rundown of what you really need to know—and the common myths to avoid—so you can make better decisions with maximum impact and less stress.

College Planning Case Study

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 10th-12th grade families
- Nov 12, 2026 | 8:00 PM ET
- Feb 25, 2027 | 8:00 PM ET
- Duration: ~60 minutes

Reframe how you think about the college process. Instead of a traditional mock admission case study, this session follows a real student journey—from early SAT®/ACT® planning and shifting testing policies to building a balanced college list and understanding admission outcomes. Along the way, we spotlight the actual workload behind applications so families can see the full four-year arc, reduce stress, start earlier, and take a more intentional, data-informed approach to the college journey.

Executive Function: The Missing Foundation of College Admission Readiness

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 10th - 12th-grade families
- Sep 10, 2026 | 9:00 PM ET
- Jan 21, 2027 | 9:00 PM ET
- Duration: ~60 minutes

As school demands grow more complex and digital tools multiply, students can often hit a breaking point of techno-stress. This session helps families understand the capacity-complexity connection and how stronger project-management skills in planning, prioritizing, and systems-building can empower students with more confidence, more mental resilience and keep college applications manageable.

How Executive Function Skills Improve Grades and Lower Stress

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 9th-12th grade families
- Mar 18, 2027 | 9:00 PM ET
- Duration: ~60 minutes

Help your student go from stressed to steady. In this webinar, we unpack executive functioning—the set of skills behind organization, time management, focus, and follow-through—and show how strengthening these skills can reduce stress, curb procrastination, and prevent “I did it but forgot to turn it in” moments. A Revolution Prep expert will share practical strategies students can start using right away to become more confident, independent learners.

The August Advantage

- Upcoming Sessions:
- 10th and 11th grade families
- May 21, 2027 | 8:00 PM ET
- Duration: ~60 minutes

The most successful applicants do not wait until senior year chaos hits in the fall. They use the summer to build clarity, direction, and momentum. College supplemental essay prompts are released in early August, but the strongest responses are rarely written from scratch at that point. Our experts will share how colleges actually evaluate supplemental essays and how students can prepare.

REGISTER TODAY!

